

Let's Practice!

What did the report say?

Instructions: Circle the correct option to complete the sentence. Read the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

1. These changes _____ on multiple occasions, and they were completely ignored.
a. were requested b. was request c. were request
2. She has adjusted all of the visual stuff, like the illustration and caption issues _____ last month.
a. that were pointed out b. that is pointed out c. that was pointed out
3. Well, _____ that a few of the more complicated words should be removed.
a. it was mentioned b. it was mention c. it is mentioned
4. These errors _____ our proofreaders ages ago.
a. were pointed out in b. were pointed out by c. were pointed out of
5. Finally, _____ that not enough feedback was received.
a. it were claim b. it was claimed c. it was claim

Let's Practice!

Upon closer inspection ...

Instructions: Use the options from the Word Bank to correctly complete the sentences.

Word Bank

At first glance / revisions / proofreaders / manuscript / copious / margins

1. I see you've received your advanced copy of the _____ today.
2. I am not pleased with the _____.
3. _____, it looked okay, but upon closer inspection, I have found that many of the suggested edits were ignored.
4. These errors were pointed out by our _____ ages ago.
5. I took _____ notes.
6. The _____ were jammed with revisions and suggestions.