

Let's Practice!

Adam and Boris laugh it up*!

*To "laugh it up" means to laugh about a situation.

Instructions: Draw a line to match the sentences in Column A and Column B. When you complete the sentences, read the sentences aloud with your partner. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

COLUMN A

1. After having received
2. Having read your profile,
3. Well, having cleared that up,
4. I guess I'm still not thinking straight,
5. Having totally embarrassed themselves,

COLUMN B

- a. let's talk about how we can arrange to bump into each other again, Boris.
- b. having just completed an epic 60-minute voyage.
- c. your business card, I went straight home and google you!
- d. I really do think that the universe just wants us to be together.
- e. Adam and Boris laugh it up.

Let's Practice!

I have a response for that!

Instructions: Proofread the sentences. Correct the mistake. Read the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

1. I certainly didn't expect to bum into you here.
2. Well that's very flattered, but I should tell you that my name is actually ...
3. Stop messing around. He's a little bit discombobulatory due to the long flight.
4. I just want to get strait, you know, since apparently I'm befuddled because of a long one-hour flight.
5. I guess I'm still not thought straight.